

Finding the right volunteering role can be really hard...

Would you like to volunteer but don't know where to start - not sure what you want to do, how to go about it?

Do you lack confidence?

Are you concerned your health will hold you back?

Other worries - a disability? Previous convictions?

Would it be useful to have someone assisting you to make the first steps?

We are here to help you !!!

We will support you to find the right volunteer role, which will meet your needs in a safe environment and where you will make a difference to other people's lives, learn new things and thrive.

Call us or email us to book an appointment

 01223 631819

 ellie@cambridgecvs.org.uk

And come and see us in
Arbury Court, Alex Wood Rd, CB4 2JQ

We will talk about you about

What you like to do

And what you don't

Talk to us

We will discuss what you feel comfortable doing, whether volunteering is the right option for you and make sure that you feel ready to start your journey, without pressure and deadlines.

You can come with your support or key worker

We can set up together an individual action plan.

You can come back as many times as you need.

We will stay in contact to make sure you are happy.

We will help you to become a Volunteer

Being a volunteer offers you the chance to:

- Do something you feel passionate about
- Be useful and have the satisfaction of helping others
- Make a difference and give back to your community
- Meet people, make friends and have fun
- Learn new skills, recognize and share existing ones
- Built confidence and self-esteem

CCVS

Supported volunteering is a project of Cambridge Council for Voluntary Service

Charity number: 1074947 Company limited by Guarantee: 3731848