

VOLUNTEERING AT EVENTS

There are lots of ways you can help at events from stewarding and fundraising to participating and running activities. Events provide a fun and rewarding way to volunteer on an occasional basis. These are only some of the events running over the next few months. If you see an event advertised that interests you, it is always worth checking the event webpage to see if volunteers are needed. As well as checking out www.do-it you can look at www.cambridgeshire.net/events/
